

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to highly recommend Eva Davis as an athlete who is prepared to make an impact in college. It has been a pleasure to coach her for the past 3 years, where she has grown into a tremendous young lady.

Eva is a charismatic individual with a work ethic you cannot teach. She is very respected by both her high school and travel team.

Eva has played a key role in my growth as a coach. She pushes herself beyond measure to be the best version of herself. Weekly, she is in different strength and conditioning sessions, hitting lessons, and pitching lessons. Her determination and work ethic will set her up for success in college. Eva is no stranger to playing top competition where she is a consistent bat and outfielder in our lineup. She led our team in RBI's in the Colorado Sparkler, National Power Pool. Eva is an impact player for her high school, Eastside, helping them make a run to the State Playoffs for the 3rd year in a row. In her free time, she works to give back to the younger generation by providing pitching and hitting lessons.

With Eva's leadership, accountability, and drive to help others, I know she would be a great addition to your program. I fully support Eva, and she has my highest recommendation!
